The Storymoja Festival is the leading festival of literature and arts in the East African region. It began as a small get together for book lovers in 2008. This year's event under theme "Imagine The World" will be held next week at the National Museum of Kenya.

Nigerian writer Teju Cole, Indian Nepalese writer Prajwal Parajuly, Kenyan anchor and journalist Jeff Koinange and investigative journalist Catherine Gicheru are in this year's speakers panel. The headline speaker will be Africa's first Nobel literature laureate Wole Soyinka.

The event was unveiled at the Micheal Joseph Centre on Waiyaki way on Thursday evening. In attendance were Botswana High Commissioner John Moreti, festival patrons Dr Auma Obama and Muthoni Garland.
